DOWNTOWN RALEIGH

redefine... the line between lifestyle residence and boutique hotel

Revisn combines the spacious comfort and relaxing convenience of a luxury apartment residence with the hospitality of a boutique hotel. Stay a few weeks or a few months while you discover new opportunities, new adventures and a new city. The flexibility of Revisn lets you decide when your stay begins and ends without being locked into calendar months or long-term leases.

Focus on you. Your residence comes fully furnished and fully equipped, including modern designer furniture, high-end appliances, cutting-edge technology and luxurious personal amenities. For everything else, just ask our 24-hour concierge.

Revisn redefines everything you think about an extended-stay residence hotel.

remarkable...

every detail, every experience,
designed to perfection

Revis's lifestyle residences combine the comfort and conveniences of a luxury apartment with the services and flexibility of a boutique hotel. Every detail has been carefully considered to deliver you the very best residential experience. A premier location, an environmentally responsible building, spacious living areas with designer furnishings, advanced technology for entertainment and residence automation, premium bed and bath appointments, and a fully equipped kitchen combine to make your stay better than home. Our 24-hour concierge, complimentary weekly housekeeping, and a host of services typically reserved for an eclectic urban hotel combine to make your stay remarkable.

rediscover... the perfect balance between relaxing and reenergizing

Revisn puts you conveniently at the center of everything while still providing a peaceful retreat from it all.

Put yourself in the heart of downtown Raleigh, North Carolina's vibrant and dynamic urban community. Grab a latte and check off emails at Starbucks around the corner. Shopping? Dry cleaning? Banking? Grocery? Cameron Village has you covered; and it's less than a mile walk or drive.

Board the free R-Line city circulator and get to work or meetings anywhere downtown in minutes. Spend a quiet evening at home. Better yet, Glenwood South comes alive after dusk. The city's best restaurants and nightlife are just one block from your front door. Or find a more eclectic experience on Peace Street.

where luxury meets responsibility

Revisn is the location where luxury, technology and environmental responsibility come together to create an exceptional residential experience.

Ultra-efficient, smart heating and cooling systems adapt to provide comfort with lower energy consumption. On-site, rooftop solar energy generation supplies the clean energy equivalent of planting over 1,000 trees annually. Every lighting source at Revisn sips energy utilizing low-energy, high-output LEDs.

Rooftop terrace for socializing with friends and neighbors

Advanced building security with two-way video intercoms at building entrances reconnect...

open doors—virtual and physical

At Revisn, advanced technology is not an afterthought, it permeates every aspect of your stay while becoming utterly transparent

Complimentary, enterprise-grade, high-speed wireless broadband with generous capacity ensure that telecommuting or high-definition streaming is effortless. Advanced building security with two-way video intercom at building entrances and smartphone accessed door locks with guest-controlled smart key sharing increase both physical security and convenience. Residence environment and entertainment options can be accessed via Alexa, Amazon's personal digital assistant.

Control your stay via the Revisn smartphone app. Your smartphone becomes your building and residence access key, your connection Revisn's 24-hour concierge, your source for dining and shopping recommendations, and your source for controlling every aspect of your residence.
